

■ GPS-Ortungsgeräte

For many years, our products have convinced users all over the world with outstanding reliability, flexibility and simplicity. Its innovative features enable accurate location tracking of mobile objects and reliable security solutions in diverse application scenarios.

All products are developed and manufactured in Germany. Special features and very high quality make our products unique – see it for yourself!

Product characteristics:

- Small and discrete GPS-/GSM-tracking device
- Very good transmission (also in fully closed cars)
- Extremely robust construction (waterproof)
- Fast installation; very easy-to-use

Longlife

... is specifically designed for long-term protection and GPS monitoring without power supply and maintenance, and for use in harsh environments.

- High lifetime without power supply (Ø 5 years)
- Very long useful life period (special batteries); no maintenance

Solid

... is particularly suited for covert location determination, for harsh environments and for high demands on tracking reliability.

- Long lifetime without power supply (> 12 months – depend on usage)
- Rechargeable and free of maintenance

Solid-Lock

... is the combination of gps tracking and a security solution because of the secure locking control

- Special tamper-resistant steel cable
- Long lifetime without power supply (> 9 months – depend on usage)
- Rechargeable and free of maintenance

Our products are available from the following partners:

