

FASTENation, Inc. Introduces a New Educational Focused Website!

Clifton, NJ (September 20, 2010) FASTENation, Inc. a global distributor and converter of fastener solutions from 3M, GLUE DOTS, Adhesive Applications and Velcro USA Inc., and a manufacturer of table-skirting clips and CD/DVD fastening solutions is proud to announce the enhancement of their website to include a New Section Dedicated to the Fastening Needs of Educators and Educational Institutions.

“We worked closely with educators when selecting products and re-engineering the website. Through this website we hope to make budgets go further, shopping easier and offer more products that are educator focused/readily available”, says Justin Ferdinand, Vice President of FASTENation, Inc.

The new website www.fasteners4schools.com offers easy access to fastening products used throughout various educational departments.

“Following the release of our new catalog we are excited to announce our initiative to give educators and their institutions a fast, easy way to find the fasteners they need. Whether it’s a current project or for their annual supply, we have the solution and ideas where these may be used. We are offering a wide range of products from VELCRO® Brand Fasteners (tapes and coins), 3M™ Adhesive Products, adhesive back foam tapes, GLUE DOTS® and more. The items are available in various quantities allowing you to purchase just the right amount needed. We are committed to helping provide fasteners for educators”, says David Petak, Executive Vice President of FASTENation, Inc.
