Title: MicroTCA – Adjustment of the Insulation Body

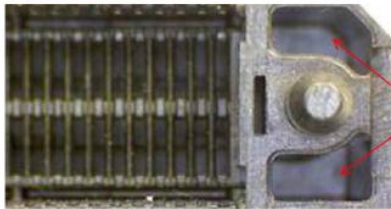

Page 1/2

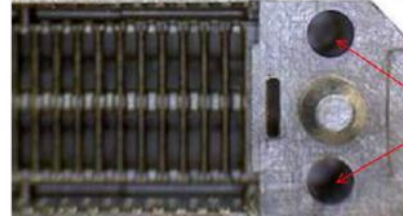

Dear Customer,

We would like to announce a small modification in the insulation body of our MicroTCA (p/n: 16 11 170 5207 000) connector.

The difference between the current and the new design can be seen in the pictures below.

Current design

New design

This is only a small adjustment which has no impact on the actual functionality of the connector.

Availability:

The new version of this connector is already available for orders.

In the future, this change will be also implemented in the following connectors:

- 16 11 170 5202 000
- 16 11 170 5205 000
- 16 11 170 5206 000
