BRING IT ON. Icom America Showcases the NEW M93D at the 2017 Seattle Boat Show

KIRKLAND, Wash. (January 2017) – BRING IT ON. Icom's newest marine handheld will be on display at the Seattle Boat Show. Stop by CenturyLink Field's Concourse 2312 between January 27 through February 4th, and check out the wide array of Icom marine equipment on display, including the new M93D and SP-37 Hailer Horn. Plus don't miss out on a chance to win a M25 floating radio during Icom's winter boat show special.

Built for the serious boater, come by the Icom booth to learn more about the new M93D. This professional and stylish radio is feature rich and smart. Stay safe with integrated GPS – providing location, bearing and speed, as well as a dedicated built-in DSC receiver for CH 70. Also the M93D is stocked with Icom's continued tradition of Float'n Flash, AquaQuake™ and Active Noise Cancelling.

See why commercial mariners and boating enthusiast alike covet Icom marine radios. Known for their legendary durability and ease of use, some of Icom's iconic marine radios will be on display during the show including the three-time NMEA Award winning M506 and the popular M25. Accessories like the new SP-37 Hailer Horn will also be on display. Connect the optional horn speaker and talk with the crew on deck or shore all from the radio's microphone.

Do not forget to visit Icom at Concourse 2312 at CenturyLink Field for a chance to WIN a M25 floating radio. Please ask an Icom team member for details.
