

Loewen 2016 Supplier of the Year Award

January 6, 2017

Loewen is pleased to announce that Intek Plastics of Hastings, MN has been selected as our Supplier of the Year for 2016.

In a challenging and uncertain economic climate; having a reliable, dependable, agile and innovative supply chain is both a competitive advantage and a commercial necessity in serving our customer's needs. The Loewen Supplier of the Year Award aims to recognize outstanding performance and best practices by a supplier over the past year.

Rick Zeien-Plant Manager (Intek), Kevin Holcomb-Quality Manager (Intek), Claude Turenne-Quality Assurance Manager (Loewen), Tim McLeod-Purchasing Manager (Loewen), Tim Elsner-Account Development Manager (Intek) & Mike Kinning-President (Intek)

Loewen's suppliers are evaluated in key performance categories including, on time delivery, quality performance, best value with cost reduction initiatives and customer service and responsiveness.

In addition to excelling at these performance measures, during the course of 2016, Intek Plastics has displayed innovation and service excellence and has embraced the spirit and principles of "partnership" that Loewen values. We appreciate the effort required to achieve this level of performance.

Regards,

Tim McLeod
Purchasing Manager
