MegaChips to present 「BlueChip PLC Multi-hop」 and 「BlueChip Wireless」 at ARM Tech Symposia 2015 Taiwan

MegaChips Corporation announced it will display “BlueChip PLC Multi-hop”, broadband PLC communication LSI (model number: KL5BPLC250WMP), and “BlueChip Wireless”, IEEE802.15.4g-compliant Sub-GHz band wireless LSI (model number: MAB0100) at ARM Tech Symposia 2015 Taiwan on November 19, 2015.

ARM Tech Symposia offers keynotes, technical presentations and booth exhibitions on the latest LSI design, mounting engineering and software development in addition to introduction of ARM based devices and applications.

MegaChips’ “BlueChip PLC Multi-hop” provides the high-speed PLC communication and enables to construct 1,000-scale network with the function of max 10 hopping and the optimal protocol (ITU-T G.9905). It achieves stable communication network through the wide area that is essential for the industrial use.

“BlueChip Wireless” provides access to the Sub-GHz bandwidth over long distances with low power consumption and ideal for IoT and sensor network.
