

PENTAIR TO SHOWCASE ERICO AND SCHROFF PRODUCTS AT RAILWAY INTERCHANGE 2015

Customers are invited to experience the benefits of Pentair's acquisition of ERICO at North America's largest railway exhibition and conference

ANOKA, Minn. — October 4, 2015 — Pentair will exhibit its Schroff and newly acquired ERICO branded products at the Railway Interchange 2015 Conference & Exhibition, to be held October 4-7 in Minneapolis, Minn. in booth number 1235.

Pentair offers a variety of standard and custom solutions to customers in the railway industry. The ERICO product line features a comprehensive range of grounding, bonding, and electrical connectivity products across a wide range of industries including rail, commercial, utility, telecom, and alternative energy applications. The Schroff product line provides reliable and secure protection for rail electronic systems to help support safe operation in rail vehicles, in buildings and trackside.

“With the recent acquisition of ERICO line of grounding, bonding, and electrical connectivity products, Pentair is excited to expand our offering to customers in the railway industry,” said Anna Reszetylo, Vice President of Global Marketing & Customer Experience, Technical Solutions, Pentair. “Our customers will benefit from a broader spectrum of high quality and innovative solutions offered by Schroff and ERICO lines which are now available from a single, global provider.”

“The ERICO brand has been a leader in the rail industry since 1903 and we look forward to exhibiting our track connections including ERICO CADWELD, grounding and bonding solutions, cable management solutions, and surge protection solutions at Railway Interchange 2015,” said Christopher Schmitt, ERICO Marketing Manager, Engineered Electrical & Fastening Solutions, Pentair.

“Whether you require the latest in fire suppressant technology for wall mount enclosures to EN45545, or a high end EMC electronics cabinet to shock & vibration standard EN50125-3, Pentair protects to the exacting requirements of the Railway Industry,” said Brendan Quinn, Schroff Business Development Manager, Electronics Protection, Pentair.
