

PWM Controller

Monday, 12 February 2007

Sirectifier Global Corp. (SGC) announced that Amaxtronics Technology Corp. (ATC), our strategy partner had made the important decision to make efforts in the field of the PWM Controller. Therefore, SGC will provide the PWM controller completely under both "SIRECT" and "ATC" brand in Asia market.

Amaxtronics Technology Corp. (ATC), the professional designer of the component on the power managements has played the role of the design house for Sirectifier for a long time. The main shareowners of ATC are two listed companies in the NASDAQ, In fact, they are also important shareholders of Sirectifier Global Corp.(SGC).

The main advantages of ATC are the advanced technology, excellent service and competitive cost in brief. Beside, the enough experience of the discrete component had enabled ATC to obtain the outstanding ability on the power management. We are sure that we can do the best for various critical requirements from our customers because of our plentiful resources and experiences.
