Tempered Glass Screen Protector

Quality assured glass from the Japanese manufacturer

The raw material is Japan's ASAHI AGC glass. It's highly stable and excellent in quality.

Highly tempered to enhance strength

Highly tempered for 4 hours to enhance surface hardness and strength of the glass, so it is less likely to splintered after being hit.

Top class coating process

Using top class vacuum electroplating for coating, it can completely go deep into glass pores to offer excellent splash proof and stain resistance for over 3000 times.

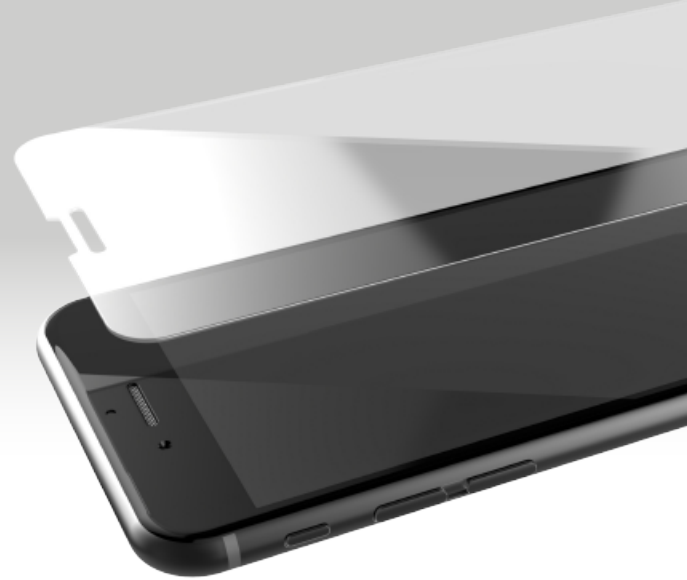

High class adhesive

Nippa adhesive from Japan. It is easy to put it on, rip it off and remove bubbles. There is no adhesive residue after ripping off, so you don't have to worry about damaging your phone.

High clarity and high light penetration

With up to 95% of light penetration ratio, all colors can be presented perfectly.
