

Will Cobb Joins XetaWave as Manufacturing & Test Engineering Manager

LOUISVILLE, March 20, 2014 / -- XetaWave, a Colorado-based wireless technology provider, today announced that Will Cobb has joined the company as Manufacturing & Test Engineering Manager. Cobb has over 6 years of related experience, most recently and for 4 years as manufacturing engineer for another wireless technology provider and prior as a manufacturing engineer and control systems designer. Cobb has an A.A.S., Electrical Technology.

At XetaWave, Cobb is responsible for maximizing product quality by utilizing advanced manufacturing methods and principles for continuous improvement of all manufacturing processes and related metrics such as production efficiency, effectiveness, cycle times, capabilities and safety. XetaWave recently moved into a new 17,000 square foot facility in Louisville, Colorado, to accommodate its growth and implementation of an in-house manufacturing line using state-of-the-art ASM (formerly Siemens) flexible placement machines. Cobb will serve as a focal point for manufacturing operations and provide sustaining support to production operation.

Craig Held, XetaWave executive vice president, commented, "We are excited that Will has joined the XetaWave team. His high level of production engineering expertise and professionalism will enable him to be a key contributor to XetaWave's continued success."

About XetaWave

Founded in 2010, XetaWave is developing the industry's most advanced, high performing, cost effective platform of software defined radios across multiple bands to meet the application needs of industries such as oil and gas, water and wastewater, electric power, and the military. The current platform of XetaWave radios includes Xeta1 (150-232 MHz), Xeta2 (216-232 MHz), Xeta3 (VHF/UHF 225-380Mhz), Xeta4 (406-512 MHz), and Xeta9 (902-960 MHz). All XetaWave radios are 100% designed, manufactured, and tested in-house at its headquarters in Louisville, Colorado. For more information, visit www.xetawave.com.
